

HOW to MAKE a MINI-ZINE

from one piece of paper

like this one!

This zine was created as a part of the Idaho OER Information Literacy Project. Find us here: info:it-idaho.github.io/

Anyone can distribute, remix, adapt, and build upon this zine, even commercially, as long as they credit the author for the original creation.

WHAT IS A ZINE?

A zine is a multi-page self-publication made for passion, not profit.

pronounced like "zeen"

ANY ONE can make a zine on ANY SUBJECT to get started making a 8-PAGE MINIZINE you'll need:

ZINES ARE A great way to SHARE your own art, poems, writing and anything else you want to EXPRESS without needing anyone else's PERMISSION.

tips

- have a margin (1/8 inch) or your text/art will get eaten by the photocopier
- pencil doesn't copy well - use pen or marker
- zines are low-stakes - take risks, make mistakes, enjoy the process

at this point all of the pages should fold together into a small 8-page book
